

Tim Murphy, Alberta Innovates, Vice President

Biography

Tim Murphy has more than 30 years of senior executive leadership experience in the health care sector. Currently, he is the Vice President, Health at Alberta Innovates and prior to this role, he was the Vice President, Provincial Platforms and SPOR. For the past decade, Tim has been a champion and pioneer in advancing digital health solutions through data informed initiatives, provincially, nationally, and internationally. Prior to joining Alberta Innovates, Tim established an independent consulting practice and worked with clients such as: the CHILD Foundation, the Institute for Health System Transformation and Sustainability, and the Movember Foundation. His other roles include being the inaugural Senior Vice President at the Michael Smith Foundation for Health Research (MSFHR)- a provincial research organization based in Vancouver, and 10 years in senior management positions with two comprehensive Academic Oncology Centres- Princess Margaret Hospital (1992-1997) and the British Columbia Cancer Agency (1997-2002). Tim holds a Bachelor of Science Degree, Life Sciences from Queen's University (1989); a Master of Health Administration from the University of Toronto (1992); and a Master of Business Administration from Queen's University (2006). In 2007, he received his Certified Management Accountant (CMA) designation.